Alexis Lauren Taylor-Boll, age 69, passed away from a car accident on Wednesday, October 29th, 2025 in Guntersville, Alabama. She was born on July 7th, 1956 in Grosse Pointe Farms, Michigan to her parents John Amos Selby and Irene Ann (Miller) Selby.

Alexis graduated from Wausau East High School in Wausau, Wisconsin in 1974. She attended Northcentral Technical College in Wausau, the University of Colorado-Boulder, and the University of Wisconsin-Madison, where she achieved a B.A. in Psychology and a minor in Music.

She met the love of her life, Gary Boll, while they were both out celebrating their birthdays at Mendota Beach Club in Madison, Wisconsin in 1989. They were united in marriage on December 4th, 1992 at the Swiss United Church of Christ in New Glarus, where they were both members. Thereafter, they shared a beautiful 32 years together. Alexis worked for the State of Wisconsin for over 40 years, excelling in various roles, including as an adjudicator and legal assistant.

Alexis enjoyed running in the Colorado mountains, skiing, golfing, bowling, playing racquetball, going for walks, gardening, baking, sewing, watching the sunset, playing cards, and spending quality time laughing with friends and family.

Alexis is survived by her husband, Gary Herman Boll; daughter, Devon Vanessa Boll; son, Dalton James Boll; brother, Michael (Kendy) Selby; sister-in-law, Gloria (Fred) Bodenmann; nieces, Meghan (Elliott) Belden and Jamie (Chad) Brecklin; nephews, Mark Selby, Ryan Selby, and Jesse (Rebecca) Darrow; and great-nephews Luke and Lance Brecklin. She is further survived by countless other family members and friends whom she considered family; her “fur-baby”, Bailey Boots; and her “grand-fur-babies”, Riku, Kairi, Momo, and Suki.

She was preceded in death by her parents and her “fur-babies”: Deja, Crystal, Velvet, and Annabelle.

Alexis left behind a note of her favorite quotes: “What goes around, comes around. Everything happens for a reason. Whatever. Life is Good. Bucko! (when I am getting mad!)”

“ I have so many memories of Alexis and I only knew her for a couple of years. We spent a lot of time together. We moved here a couple months after her and Gary. I remember her coming to my door and greeting me with the biggest and most beautiful smile. It was love at first sight. It didn't take long to bond with her. There were so many things I admired about her. I felt like her and I were best friends without even knowing each other that long. She was our neighborhood organizer for the girls getting together. Not sure what we will do without her. She was very involved in her kids lives and I admired that so much about her. She would hop on a plane anytime they needed her. So much time we spent with Gary and Alexis going out to dinner, hanging out on our back porches, concerts, just everywhere we went we went with them. I just loved her and loved her upbeat attitude. She even had a great attitude about her breast cancer. It will feel like part of me is missing without her. I already miss her so much! Prayers and love to Gary, Dalton, Devon and Bailey.

“ My sincere condolences to Gary...I was an across the street neighbor to Alexis & Gary while living in Gunters Landing. They were such fine neighbors with Alexis always providing beverages & food at every event...I always enjoyed having them sit outside & share my firepit on clear starlit nights having great conversations about a myriad of things. I pray that Gary & their family be comforted in the coming days & weeks. Bob Stewart
