“ Oh Lord,, How do you write a memory of someone you have loved all your life. There are sooo many.. We just to get in the car and just go..Every year decorations we would go get flowers and spend time at our parents and their parents graves...We spent so many all nighters playing cards. Just having fun and being together... I love my precious sister and will miss her for the rest of my life..

Wanda Henderson - October 22, 2020 at 08:16 PM

Cassie was my rock when I needed someone I loved her with my whole heart so many times worshipping our Lord Jesus Christ and long nights of playing cards when my oldest daughter was born she was there when I needed someone when my sister died she was there when my own mother passed away she was there she never left my side when my house burned she was there I always had a bed to sleep in food to eat she was who I talked to when I would get hurt or when I was happy I am going to miss your sweet smiling face until we meet again I will love you
