Although she wasn't my aunt I referred to her as aunt Barbara she was always good to me.

She gave of herself unselfishly to anyone who needed her, especially our family.

Aunt Barbara was always upbeat and happy always had a smile for everyone she was just all-around good people. A lady in every sense of the word. She will not only be missed by her immediate family everyone that knew her and loved her is going to have a void in their life that can't be replaced.

The one thing that you can take comfort in is that if you're a child of God you see you're again in the presence of Jesus our King.
