Please join us in celebrating the life of Beatrice (Betty) May Mathews (Williams). Betty's spirit departed this earth at age 77, here in Guntersville, on January 19, 2016, in her home on O'Brig Avenue, with close family by her side.

Born in Fairfield, Alabama, she grew up in Alabama and graduated high school in Oak Ridge, Tennessee. She went on to live in Florida serving as President of the Garden Club for years and served as a member of the board at Jordan Marsh. She then lived in Alabama, and Louisiana. Next she worked for the State of Louisiana's Department of Revenue, retiring in 1998. Betty came to join the Guntersville community as resident in 2000 with her husband Don, from Baton Rouge, Louisiana. A lifelong flower and plant lover, Betty continued to follow her passion and delight through her local Master Gardener's affiliation in Alabama.
