“ My heart was there even though I couldn't be, when my beautiful best friend was laid to rest today! I love and miss you. For the last 15 years Sissy "River" has been my rock in good times and sad times. I know the wonderful love she had for her family and friends for she shared that love with me. R.I.P. along with your beloved husband Jim whom you never wanted to be a day without. So today as good byes were said I silently said" so long my friend" till we meet again on the Heavenly Shores. To your family my thought and prayers are with you all!

“ Sissy "Riverrat" was more than just a friend, we became sisters in life and she shared so many wonderful stories of her family with me, especially her love and devotion to her grandchildren. It broke my heart when God wrapped his arms around her and took her home. I am at peace knowing she is with her beloved husband that she so wanted to be reunited with. To her family, you are all in my prayers and thoughts and I grieve the loss of your beautiful Mother, Granny, Sister, Aunt and my best friend. She will forever be in our hearts. Heaven not only gained an angel, but gained sweet pure love in the most loving of all angels.
