

Daniel Keith Bright

November 3, 1980 - July 3, 2022

Daniel Bright, 41, of Horton, Alabama, passed away on July 3, 2022, at his residence.

Daniel Keith Bright was born November 3, 1980, son of Linda Watson Bright Young and the late David Keith Bright. Daniel spent his childhood in the Douglas area, surrounded by family and rooted in the local music scene of which his father was a part. He attended Douglas High School, where he made many friends that he kept throughout his life.

Daniel was a loving son, always looking out for his mother, particularly after his father's passing when he was only 15. He put others first and was a fierce and loyal friend who had a special knack for befriending those often overlooked in society. His home was a safe place, free-from-judgment, and he generously shared what he had with others, even when it wasn't always much.

Daniel spent many years working as a truck driver, most recently for Tyson. He had a passion for motorcycles and working on old cars. He was always tinkering with something.

Although Daniel never had children of his own, his friends became like family, and many young people looked to him as a mentor. He left behind his dogs, who were more like children than pets.

Daniel was baptized and, though he did continue to have struggles, he spent the last years of his life as a believer in Christ. He is survived by his mother, Linda Young; his stepfather, Jervis Young; his grandmother, Mildred Watson Bailey; his stepsister, Sonya Young; his niece, Jazmine Young; his chosen brother, Daniel Walls; and many aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

He is preceded in death by his father, David Keith Bright; grandparents, Truman and Virginia Bright, JB Watson, Willie Bailey, and Dollie Young.

Daniel was interred at Marshall Memorial Gardens, with his friends, the Harley Lovers, serving as pall bearers and honor guards for his service.
