“ I am sorry to learn of your family sorrow. The death of a loved one is painful. If I may, I'd like to share scripture found in your Bible that may comfort you in some way. John 6:40 reads...For this is the will of my Father, that everyone that beholds the Son and exercises faith in him should have everlasting life, and I will resurrect him in the last day. You see, according to this promise, we have hope.

“ Brit, my heart is broken. I know there are no words that help...but, God's plan are bigger than ours, and sometimes they are hard to understand. I pray He will wrap his arms around you and the family and hold you up. My prayers are with you. Love you.

“ Britnie, I am so sorry for your loss. I have had you in my prayers all weekend and woke up this morning with you on my mind and just prayed that God would uphold you and surround you with His love, peace, grace and power. His grace is sufficient. Cling to that and trust God to work in your life and the life of your family. I will continue to lift your and your family up to the Lord.

“*Britnie,
I am so sorry for your loss. I can't even begin to imagine your pain.
You have been and will continue to be in my prayers. I pray the Lord comforts you and gives you strength to get thru this. "Trust in the LORD with all your heart and do not lean on your own understanding." Proverbs 3:5 Love you Britnie.*
