“ Never forget the day her mom brought her in our store. she had been at the dr all day and just needed a break from driving. When she walked threw the doors it was like a angel coming threw .she Was tired from the long day. and just needed a break. we sat and talked played with eliza. I can hear her little laughter as she heard the ice falling from the ice machine. she though that was the funniest thing she ever heard. she will forever be missed by all of use here at citgo cleveland. Fly high little eliza .
