“ Evelyn was a fantastic mother-in-law to me. We traveled on many cruises together. She said on her 80th birthday, "if I could go to Australia, I would die happy". So she and I spent a week in Sidney and returned to Los Angeles on a 30 day cruise visiting South Pacific Islands and Hawaii. She was generous of her time and talent. Reading, watching soap operas, crocheting and sewing were her hobbies. She taught me how to cook her famous "Cheese Straws" and other "favorite foods" that her son Tom loved. Evelyn was a remarkable women whom I will miss dearly. Rest in Peace!
