He has lived in Guntersville for over 35 years with his beloved wife of 53 years, Ruby Joyce (Schultz) Warren who predeceased him. He is remembered by his family and friends as an amazing and generous person.

through the ranks to become a Purchasing Manager. While residing in the Chicago suburb of River Grove, Frank joined the River Grove Police Department part time. His service was so outstanding that he rose to the rank of Lieutenant before retiring from the force.

It was also while residing in Illinois where Frank became a passionate Mason. Like every endeavor, he quickly rose to leadership positions.

Upon retirement from the U.S. Postal Service and River Grove Police Department, he and his wife, Ruby Joyce moved to Guntersville. Not content to sit idle, Frank became a member of the Guntersville Police Department as well as a starter for the state park golf course.
