“ I am sorry to learn of your family sorrow. The death of a loved one is painful. If I may, I'd like to share scripture found in your Bible that may comfort you in some way. John 6:40 reads...For this is the will of my Father, that everyone that beholds the Son and exercises faith in him should have everlasting life, and I will resurrect him in the last day. You see, according to this promise, we have hope.

HI

“ Kay, I am so sorry to hear about Ginger. She was always bubbling over with happiness. I did not ever see her without a smile. Andy read about it in the Huntsville Times. Just know I am thinking of you and will keep your family in my prayers.

“ Words cannot express how sorry I am for the loss of your daughter and sister. But know that a mistake has not been made and that God always knows best. You all are in my prayers that God will ease the pain in due time and the broken link can somehow be put back together again. So Kay, Melody and Martin and the rest of the family - hang on in there!

*Always remembering,
Helen*
