

Ms. Glenda Liz Torres Luna

January 5, 1977 - September 25, 2024

Glenda Liz Torres Luna, 47, passed away September 25, 2024 at Marshal Medical South Hospital in Boaz Alabama. Ms Glenda was born on January 5, 1977 to her parents Ana M Luna and Gregorio Luna. She was a beloved daughter, mother, aunt, grandmother and friend. Anyone that knew Glenda knew that she was the sweetest loving woman you could have ever met in your life. She was the most joyful person and also the life of any party. Glenda was the person that would turn any ugly situation into a good one. She had the most beautiful little eyes. Anyone that got to meet Glenda or even be in her presence were very blessed because she was one of a kind, she loved everyone unconditionally and just someone you don't ever forget about. After the loss of her mother, she lived for her grandkids. Everything she did she made sure her grandkids were ok. She loved them with everything in her and they loved her unconditionally. Glenda's grandkids were the spark to her light and did anything in her power to make them happy! To many others she may be remembered as many things but to her family a person we loved beyond her flaws, a person who would give the shirt off her back to anyone even if it was her last. A person who moved mountains to make sure her kids, family, friends didn't need for anything at all in this world. A person who open the doors to her home to anyone that needed shelter a warm shower and some warm food. That's the Glenda we will always remember. Ms Torres is survived by her daughter: Amariliz her sons: Juan Gabriel, Juan Mario, Anthony and Rafael. Glenda has 8 grandkids her sister Mabel Hernandez Luna and her brother Alberto Arroyo. Nieces and Nephews are Leisha, Mario, Joshua, Katyane, Michelle, Carmen and Jeryane "Favorite Neice" Ms Torres is proceeded in death by her mother Ana M. Luna and her nephew Heraldo Casanova
