“ My grandparents lived across the street from the Henry old mansion on Blount and some of my best memories are of days spent with James, Jimmy Hindman and my brother John. James mom was so supportive of all of us and was truly one of the prettiest ladies to ever be in Guntersville. James added so much to my early life and it is nice to know how successful he was in later life. God bless you, Jamesy thank you for your strength.

“ James Henry was kind enough to accompany my dad T.L. Conner to his Navy ship reunions across the country when driving long distances became difficult for him. Those trips were the highlight of my dad's later life and our family will always be grateful for James' kindness in doing this. Praying for your family as you grieve his loss.
