“ For those who don't know , last night my dad, the strongest - smartest man I've ever known gained his wings. (July28, 2024) at the Huntsville Hospital, Alabama. This is so hard... he came into my life back in 1985- fell in love with my mom who had 4 children... who would have thought that he would have chosen to be our dad. It wasn't always easy, for I had lost my birth father a few years prior.. RIP, and I wasn't very nice or respectful to him but he loved me and never gave up on me. He was hard on me- but he made me who I am today he and my mom! I will miss this man more than he will ever have known. He severed 23.5 years to protect our country in the United States Army then went on to the army Reserves. I am truly blessed to have him as my dad. Life will not be the same with out him. Now we find a way to go on with our hearing his voice or giving him a hug. Please pray for our family as we find our way with the one who completed our family. Dad- I will miss you forever thank you for your love , patience, guidance and all those talks on the phone. Until we meet again. (Say hello to our other loved ones who are dearly missed) as your called ID says... love,” your favorite Daughter”
