“ One of the nicest, dearest & kindest men I have ever known. You are at peace now, so rest. For 3 & 1/2 years you were a wonderful companion & friend. You fun in highschool days & you were a fun man to be around when you aged. I will miss you dearly. ❤️💧

“ John Clifton was a wonderful man. He accomplished in life what he desired to do. He served his country in Vietnam as a Marine. I first met him when we were in highschool. John was always know as Johnny Clifton in those days. I was two years behind him in school. It was good to be his closest female friend for the better part of the last three years. John loved his family & was a devoted Father & Grandfather. He took great pride in his children. He was a Christian. Prayers for his family during this time of grief but remember this. John is not in any pain or sickness anymore, He is with the Lord. 🙏💧
