Joshua worked in security and was working when an aneurysm ruptured in brain and he instantly went to heaven '

Joshua loved music to sing was an excellent artist loved to draw all the time,

He wanted to be a welder tried it but his health wouldn't let him stay in the job,

He loved his wife severely they were soul-mates. His love was everywhere he always had a smile he could make anyone laugh. He was always joking and making you laugh.

He loved his brothers both of them unconditionally.

He gave the strongest hugs so if you got one you remembered them

Joshua had many friends who loved him and he just didn't know how many.
