

Leta Louise Capshaw

July 15, 1957 - February 15, 2023

Leta (Lee) Hart Capshaw, 65 died unexpectedly on February 15, 2023, while at her home in Guntersville, Al. Her loss was completely unexpected, and the family is shocked and saddened by her sudden loss. Lee Hart Capshaw was born on July 15, 1957, to Elisabeth Hart and Julian Hart Jr. of Guntersville Al. She spent her childhood swimming and fishing in lake Guntersville and enjoyed the company of many other children in the Browns Creek neighborhood that she loved. She attended school in Guntersville and later the Alabama School of Fine Arts in Birmingham, Al. After high school, she attended Birmingham Southern College earning a B. A. Her post graduate studies were at the University of Alabama, Birmingham, Samford University, Birmingham, University of Alabama, Huntsville.

Lee's business careers spanning 1982 to 2022 were at Avco in Huntsville, Intergraph Corporation Huntsville, Teranetix Huntsville and Orchid Orthopedic Solutions Arab. In July of 2022 she retired. Lee was preceded in death by her parents Elisabeth Hart and Julian Hart Jr. She is survived by her loving husband of 35 years, Robert Capshaw.

Anyone who knew Lee, knew that she was a dear, lifelong friend. She was such a talented smart loving woman. She saw the beauty in all things, especially all things nature. She expressed that with so many beautiful photographs that helped people be a part of her wonderful life. Lee's family and friends will miss her more than words can say. Her visitation will be from 2-4 PM on Monday February 20th at Carr Funeral Home, Guntersville, Al. A brief service will be held after visitation at the funeral home chapel.
