I send my sincerest condolences to Judy and the entire family. I just wanted you all to know that Lowell was one of the nicest people that I have ever met. He was a true southern gentleman who was so gracious to me with his time and knowledge. I always enjoyed traveling on business with Lowell because I loved when he told people that he was "just peachy". He took me to the best BBQ place in MS that I will never forget. In addition, Lowell was such a wonderful story teller. I especially loved all the stories about Shorty. My favorite dinners were with both Lowell and Judy when the stories would get even better. Such a wonderful man will surely be missed by all who knew him.
