“Madge was a very special lady who loved God and people. She adored her children and grands. I did not know of her death until just now, I am so sorry that I did not come and visit with her beautiful family. She had a wonderful home waiting for her that was not made by human hands. Many memories race through my mind this morning as I praise God that I was allowed to spend some time with her as she passed through this land. This world has lost a great lady. She has received her great reward. I shall remember her great sense of humor and wit. Love you Madge. Bobbie Masters
