

Mrs. Martha Rice Argabright

November 4, 1939 - April 28, 2026

Martha Rice Argabright, born on November 4, 1939, embarked on her final journey on April 28, 2026, surrounded by the love of her family. Martha was a remarkable soul, known for her vibrant spirit and zest for life. Throughout her years, Martha's creativity and passion for crafting shone brightly through her mastery of tole painting and crocheting. She was a free spirit, finding joy in traveling cross country on her motorcycle with her husband and sometimes traveling solo, embracing every adventure that came her way. Martha's kitchen was a place of warmth and delicious aromas, where she was renowned for making the best banana pudding. Her cheerful demeanor and welcoming nature made her a person who never met a stranger and cherished the company of others. She was a woman who lived wide open, always embracing each day with a smile and infectious happiness. She was a giver to all in need. Martha's love for her family knew no bounds, and she treasured every moment spent with them. Martha is survived by her devoted sister, Norma (Jerry) Atchley, and loving brother, Bobby (Rhe) Rice. She will also be remembered by her grandchildren, Jason Blair, Blake Blair, and Paige Chapman, as well as her great-grandchildren, Jacob, Marissa, Hunter, Collette, and Lori. In the loving memories of Martha, she is predeceased by her beloved husband, Kenneth Argabright, her daughter, Cathy Blair, her son, Kenneth Paige Vest, and her parents, Thomas Rufus Rice and Pearl Marsh Rice. She is also reunited in eternity with her siblings, Carl Rice, Billy Rice, Paul Rice, Keith Rice, OA Rice, Leo Rice, Katherine Duet, Jewell Ogle, Othell

Moore, and Allene Tucker. Martha's legacy of love, laughter, and endless adventures will forever be cherished by those who were fortunate enough to have known her. May she rest in peace, her spirit forever young and free.
