“ You was my world my breath my backbone my everything..taking away so soon. No words can ever describe the emptiness inside. Our love was one of a kind our memories will forever be kept. You was the light in my life and forever will be. Your soul was pure the love for everyone around you was felt. Never being able to hold you tell you I love you or goodbye, ir wasn't suppose to end this way but I know you are resting easy now. I love you eternally baby girl. My world is shattered into a million pieces but one day we will be together resting together
