“ My thoughts, my prayers ,my love for my nephew Michael Baldwin. As I sat quietly at the hospital my thoughts turned to the handsome little boy you were running around and always smiling. I thought how handsome you were in your uniform and how proud I was if you. As I watched you take your last breath on this Earth I knew there was something better waiting for you on the other side I loved you, miss you already.

“ Its been only 7 days since God took you home, seems forever without you. It says share a memory, wow, I have 14 years worth of those! I hate that we are at this point of our journey in life together, but sadly we are! I always said there werent words to describe our love for one another, its so rings true now as there are no words to describe what im feeling without you. I dont know how to do life without you, Michael! I really dont, even though I know God will show me the path I need to take each day, that you will be watching over us all and probably shaking your head at the things me, your kids, grandkids do or say as you did when here with us on this earth, it doesnt make it any easier. My broken heart yearns to see you, hear your voice, see the sparkle in those blue eyes as you laugh, the only comforting thing about any of this is your free from the pain n suffering you endured your last couple months here with us. I love you baby, forever n always. I didnt say goodbye to you just see ya later and that I will do, til then RIP my angel!
