

Nadine Tyhonoff

September 29, 1913 - January 20, 2012

Ms. Nadine Tyhonoff of Guntersville, AL, passed away on Friday, January 20, 2012 at Marshall Manor Nursing Home. She was 98 years old. She was born on September 29, 1913 in Odessa, Russia (now the Ukraine). Her former home was Falls Church, Virginia.

At age six she and her family fled the communist revolution and after a year in Switzerland the family settled in Poland. World War II caused another fleeing from communists, temporary resettlement in Germany, followed by permanent settlement in New York. From Columbia University she obtained a masters degree in music and later a masters in library sciences.

Twenty years ago she retired from the Federal Reserve Board in Washington D.C. where she was a librarian. She loved playing the piano, classical music, crossword puzzles, and was dedicated to her family, especially her grandchildren.

Ms. Tyhonoff is survived by her son Andrew Krantz of Guntersville, one granddaughter Andrea Dobberman in Minnesota, one grandon Greg Krantz in Massachusetts and four great grandchildren.

There was a private memorial service held in the chapel at Carr Funeral Home on Sunday, January 29, 2012.
