

Paula Rose Walker Warnes

September 4, 2020

Paula Rose Walker Warnes, 96, a resident of Brown's Creek for 52 years passed away at home, September 4, 2020. Born in Chicago, IL, Paula lived in Dunwoody, GA, for 16 years before moving to Guntersville. Paula was preceded in death by her husband of 58 years, James (Jim) R.

Warnes, and granddaughter Sara Ruth Warnes. She is survived by her children, Jim Warnes and Robin Howard (Mark), Algeciras, Spain; 9 grandchildren and 8 great-grandchildren.

(Carol), Athens, GA; Joan Kolok (Bill), Owensboro, KY; Dan Warnes (Barbara), Guntersville;

Paula was a longtime member of Guntersville First United Methodist Church and the Emmaus

Walk community. Before she retired, Paula owned and operated Placement Experts, a personnel firm specializing in engineers and other professionals in Huntsville, AL. She was proud that she built her homes, managing the construction and bidding each item. Paula and Jim were leaders in their church and she was a mentor to many. They were a team.

Paula valued family and entertained her grandchildren with rides in the lawn

cart to her Secret

Garden, hours of playing cards and board games, and passing on the love of reading.

The family would like to thank her Emmaus group, her caretakers Shelley Bennett, Tammy Lackey, Mike Maynard, Judy Sims, and her special friend Terri Shaddox.

In lieu of flowers, the family request donations be made to First United Methodist Church of Guntersville, or SIFAT, Servants in Faith and Technology, 2944 Co. Road 113, Lineville, AL, 36266.

Tribute Wall

ME

“ Precious sweet lady and friend. I have always admired her Christian attitude and leadership. RIP dear lady. ”

Moe Elmore - September 09, 2020 at 11:17 AM