

Shirley Mayhall

We rejoice in the celebration of a life well lived by Shirley Bea Mayhall beloved mother, sister, and friend to many. Shirley is survived by her two daughters Renee and Rochelle Mayhall. Her two brothers and sister in law, Bob and Gladys Graves and Eddie Graves. Her new journey takes her to a wonderful place where she will be socializing, dancing, gardening, and reading to her heart's content. Music, laughter, and love are guaranteed. The food is delicious, and you never gain an ounce. She was beloved and we wished her a safe journey. We will remember her smile, her warmth, her energy, her love for life, family, and friends. She made a difference in the lives of many. We invite you to join us and celebrate together.

“ I was thinking about Shirley and decided to see what I could find out about how she was doing. I see she passed on to her reward about 4 years ago. I met Shirley back in 1989 when I first started working for the U.S. Department of Education as an institutional review specialist. Shirley was in an administrative position at the time, but was later promoted to being an institutional review specialist. Our job required us to travel to colleges and universities throughout the eight southeastern states to conduct what were called program reviews. We usually worked in teams of two and would leave to go out of town on a Monday morning and return on Friday afternoon. We didn't travel with the same person each time, but I was privileged to travel with Shirley many times. Work usually entailed sitting in a conference room reviewing files together and of course you traveled together, ate together, etc. Shirley was always fun to work and travel with and was always up for whatever. One of my favorite memories was when we were in Birmingham, AL and there was a rodeo close to where we were staying. Shirley had never been to a rodeo, but we went one night and I think she enjoyed it. Rest easy Shirley. I still think fondly about you from time to time. – Marvin Weindorff

“ Wishing the deepest comfort and prayers during this time of great loss. I truly have the fondest memories when seeing Shirley. I remember every time when coming to visit having long wonderful fulfilling conversations with her. She shared such warmth and a charming dry wit in all the times I came to visit. She really made me laugh. Her wise supporting words and humor will be sorely missed. May all the most comforting thoughts and support come your way during this monumental loss. Troy Mapel
