“ Steve was a great guy a great friend and he's been a brother from another mother..... He would call me before he came by my house some time it would be about 8am. Or so he would ask my wife if she going to cook that shoney's breakfast and she would get up and cook a big breakfast for him... Or he would show up out of the blue and I'll be working on a motorcycle or something and it never fails he would scare the crap out of me he would do that and now I can't believe that he's not going to be around anymore... I know you are flying up there with a smile on your face looking over us... And we know we are going to meet again one day.. so until that time comes we will always thought of you and you will be missed!!! Love you bro... R.I.P.
