

Terri Sue Williams

December 31, 1958 - February 27, 2013

A native of Guntersville, Terri Buffington Williams dies Wednesday night, Feb. 27, 2013, at her home in Arab. She was 54.

Her Funeral will be Sunday at 3:00 at First Baptist Church of Guntersville, with visitation from 1:00 to 3:00. Rev. Aaron Johnson will officiate. Burial will be in Crestview Cemetery, directed by Carr Funeral Home.

Mrs. Williams was born in Guntersville to W.E. (Buff) and Bettye Buffington. She graduated in 1977 from Guntersville High School, where she played the flute in the marching band and concrete band. She attended Auburn University.

She worked for the government at Redstone Arsenal for 25 years, most recently in foreign disclosure. She loved horses, had a passion for quilting and gardening, and adored her 3 cocker spaniels.

She is survived by her husband, Ed Williams; son, Chris Baggett; Caroline (Lt. Gabriel) Urquidez; her parents, W.E. and Bettye Buffington; a brother, Steve Buffington, and 2 grandchildren, Levi and Josephone.

The family suggest memorial donations to Hospice of Marshall County.
