“ Terry was my husband for 27yrs..he was a good man and great daddy to our children .he was a wonderful husband who loves his family and a hard working man that was loved by many!!! He loved Alabama football and he loved to fish and most of all he loved spending time with our grandson.turnerdale was his shadow who said paw paw I'll help you...didn't matter what it was but side by side they walked together with more Love for each other that only they knew what unconditional love meant!! It was a beautiful thing to watch as we grew stronger and loved harder!!!Terry I will always love and cherish the yrs we had together and I'll always honor you with pride cause you deserve peace and Jesus got a sweet soul when he called you home!!! No more worries no more pain.. until we meet again I'll always love you and never will you leave my heart..I miss you paw paw and you will always live in Turner Dale and he'll always have all the memories of his gravy and biscuit eating partner..I will hug him everyday for you and you'll always be remembered by all!!!my world will never be the same without you ..but I no in my heart you'll wait on me and hold my hand again one day soon..I LOVE YOU ..RIP DOLL thank you for loving me many yes
