“ Wanda and Bob were dear friends of ours; After Bob died and she had moved to City Village in Decatur, we would visit often, help her nephew out by taking her to the doctor, etc Then. her nephew, Jerry died. The next time we went to see her, she was gone! We could never find her; after searching I did find out she was in Montgomery (seeing it in her sons obit). Wanda was such a sweet lady and we spent many good times together: my heart aches for the time we missed.

“ I remember the first time I met Wanda it was when I got engaged with her only son Robert.
Robert brought me he to meet her and his father
