“ Dear Angie & Steve,

I am so sorry for your loss of your dear father Wendell. Even though you know he's in a better place than he was at the end, I know your hearts are breaking with his passing. Angie, your daddy could not have had a more loving and sweet daughter. You are a testament to those qualities that your daddy tried to instill in you. He lives on in you and you will continue to honor this wonderful man by living your life as he taught you how to.
