“ My heart breaks for all of you. When we hurt God weeps for us. Tears are a language God understands. I'm praying for you all to have that peace that surpasses all understanding. Travis is so funny! He used to crack me up! His sense of humor never got old. My grandmother had Alzheimer's. This is what I I wrote for her and I want to share it with you: my precious daddy or pops as you are in heaven Now your mind is perfect God is renewing your mind.. he is touching and gently removing every defect with his tender fingers. Travis has a renewed mind. Every defect in his brain is Gone! His brain is being washed in God's precious blood. Please know that I'm praying for you all. You all can cry with hope because you know Travis is in heaven and you know that you will see him again one sweet glorious day. Mark, your struggles will be over! You will leave your wheelchair or walker behind. You will be able to RUN up to pops and give him the biggest hug ever! Love and prayers Amy Carter,
